

LUCAS COUNTY COURT of COMMON PLEAS
DOMESTIC RELATIONS DIVISION
429 N. MICHIGAN STREET, SUITE A
TOLEDO, OHIO 43604-5621

From the Desk of:
DAVID E. LEWANDOWSKI
ADMINISTRATIVE JUDGE

March 24, 2020

TO: Press Release
FROM: Judge David Lewandowski
RE: Lucas County Domestic Relations Court Dockets Suspended

All hearings and Court Counseling appointments currently scheduled are suspended due to public health concerns. This includes but is not limited to all case proceedings, motion hearings, pre-trials, firm trials, and mediations. The court remains open for the filing of new Domestic Violence CPO petitions, the DV Center on the second floor will continue operations.

The court will extend deadlines for responsive pleadings, briefs, and other filings, including the 90 day hearing deadline for Petitions for Dissolution. The court will issue a detailed, blanket order extending all deadlines at a future date.

Court personnel will contact you to reschedule at a later date. The court anticipates the suspension of dockets will continue to at least April 6, 2020, and will strive to keep you informed. The suspensions are necessary to ensure the health and safety of staff, parties, attorneys, and the general public.

If you have any questions, you may contact the Court Administrator's Office at 419-213-6860.
