The Fair Housing Center Shifts to Remote Services Amid COVID-19 Concerns

The health and safety of our clients, staff, and community are our top priority during this difficult situation.

Following the recommendations made by government and health officials, we are taking steps to help reduce the risks associated with COVID-19 while still providing vital services to our community.

Effective Tuesday, March 17, 2020, until further notice, The Fair Housing Center will be closing its offices to the public but will continue offering services via phone, email, and online.

Anyone who needs assistance can reach us during our regular business hours, Monday – Friday, 9 a.m. – 5 p.m. in any of the following ways:

- Call 419-243-6163 and leave a voicemail
- Send us a message through our website at toledofhc.org/contact
- Contact individual staff via email

Messages will be monitored and responded to as quickly as possible.

Working together, we can all do our part to get through these challenging times. Now more than ever, having a safe, stable place to call home is essential, and The Fair Housing Center remains committed to ensuring everyone in our community can access the resources they need.

Finally, thank you to all of the healthcare workers, police, firefighters, elected officials, government staff, and others working hard to keep our communities safe.
